F3 SuperTrap Combo

F3 design:

The F3 was a ground breaking, zero-based development by Germany's leading manufacturer of sporting firearms. Superior weight distribution makes it extremely pointable, while at the same time keeping it steady and smooth when following the line of the target without infringement on acceleration or speed of swing. The F3's extremely fast lock time and crisp trigger, that breaks like glass at approximately 3 ¼ lbs, ensure that the shot string is on its way the same instant the shooter's brain gives the command to pull the trigger.
